CLUB GROWTH DIRECTOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Marketing Strategy

The club growth director develops a marketing plan in conjunction with district team members. This marketing plan introduces new initiatives and guides the district in meeting membership and club-growth objectives.

With the district director's approval, the club growth director appoints members to chair club growth committees, such as the club extension chair, club quality chair, club retention chair and club new source research chair. These positions form the district marketing team. Once formed, these committees help the club growth director to design, develop and implement district marketing projects.

As the brand steward at the district level, the club growth director is responsible for ensuring that the district adheres to Toastmasters International brand standards.

Membership and Club Growth

As club growth director, you recruit, train and supervise a strong club-building team; you work closely with the region advisor to meet the district's membership and club-building goals.

In collaboration with and subject to the approval of the district director, the club growth director appoints committee chairs as necessary to aid in the organization of new clubs in the district.

It is your responsibility, as club growth director, to assist the club and the district director to appoint club sponsors, mentors for new clubs and club coaches for existing clubs that are struggling. Once appointed, you train, motivate and supervise the club sponsors, mentors and coaches and manage the Club Coach program to help weak clubs achieve recognition in the Distinguished Club Program.
