

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Yoram Solomon

YOUR MOST IMPORTANT SUPERPOWER

Trust is the foundation of every relationship you have, and your trustworthiness is critical to your professional success or failure. It is therefore the most important superpower you can have, more than the next four, combined. But trust is neither static nor universal. Dr. Solomon shares his findings from The Book of Trust and tells you two things you did not know about trust, which would help you be even more trusted.

Friday night keynote

Brandy Schade

USE CLIFTONSTRENGTHS TO SOAR

The audience will gain an understanding of the philosophy behind CliftonStrengths, what makes this approach valuable, and why companies are using a strengths-based approach to have a positive impact on engagement, productivity, and results.

Saturday morning keynote

Warren Honeycutt

THE FOCUSED MIND

In Warren's presentation of The Focused Mind, he helps the audience to understand the power of the conscious and subconscious mind and how it dictates our outcomes. Then, he uses stories to illustrate how today is just a reflection of yesterday's thought. True to his own motto "Purpose brings passion...Passion creates magic...Magic births miracles," he shows us how to create the magic for ourselves through our ability to Dream, Desire, Decide, and Design—all while having Faith, Fortitude, and Friends.

Saturday lunch keynote

Keynote Speaker

T K O'Geary

YOU HAVE THE (SUPER) POWER WITHIN

One of the more rare achievements in Toastmasters is the Distinguished Toastmaster achievement. In this talk, you'll learn more about the Distinguished Toastmaster achievement, why it is important, and who in District 25 achieved the Distinguished Toastmaster this past year. T K O'Geary is currently serving on the Toastmasters International Board of Directors since being elected at the August 2019 International Convention and has been a Toastmaster since 1987. Her passion is helping people give a voice to their talents, which is why she is also a Board member of New Mexico MESA, an organization that provides supplemental STEM and leadership education to over 4,000 middle and high school students, annually.

Saturday night keynote

Register today at

d25toastmasters.org/conference/registration

Conference Pass — $250 for up to 10 members in a single club

- $152 Full registration - early bird thru Apr 3
- * $155 Full registration - Apr 1 - Apr 24
- $165 Late registration - Apr 25 - May

Fees for both in-person and virtual pass

- $75 Two-day pass - early thru Apr 3
- $85 Two-day pass - from Apr 1 - May 8
- $50 One-day pass - early thru Apr 3
- $60 One-day pass - from Apr 1 - May 8

• see website for a la carte prices for meals

• Special Room Rate: $91 (book by May 1)

District 25 2021 Conference

MAY 14-15, 2021
MARRIOTT DALLAS/FORT WORTH
WESTLAKE, TEXAS

How to become a Shapeshifter in an Uncertain World — Valerie Bartley

“Change is inevitable. Growth is optional.”
– John C. Maxwell

This program will help Toastmasters and other attendees to recognize the power of adaptability. They will learn how being open and flexible in business, school or home situations can be an advantage. Not only will they experience professional growth, but they will experience personal growth. Learning to effectively communicate and adapt to a changing environment will result in stronger and long-lasting relationships. It will also result in a successful workplace and business.

Super Power Memory to the Rescue! Cassie Bullock

5 Steps to remember speeches, names and dates. Want to remember your speech with confidence? Remember names? Dates? You can! Join Toastmaster Cassie Bullock for an interactive and inspiring presentation guiding you through the proven 5-step Black Belt Memory system. You will leave with the tools to remember at least 10X more than when you arrive. Build your self-confidence and add a new superpower to your tool belt!

Accidental Leadership — Robi Ley

Most superheroes didn't choose their fate. They gained their power through accident or mishap. It was the choices they made afterwards that made them heroes. Leadership can be the same. It doesn't matter how you came to be in that leadership role, it matters what you do with it. This session will help you take your role from accidental to intentional and become your own superhero.

Networking Made Easy—Gisele Marcus

Networking does not have to be hard work! Learn how to build and maintain relationships effortlessly. How is networking defined? How can I expand my network? How can I maintain my network? ... All of this in easy to implement practical steps to get you started today.

Inventiveness and Creativity — Superpowers Important to our Speeches — Emily Murray

Do you find yourself falling into the trap of being repetitious in your speeches? Have you just stopped speaking to avoid being repetitious? Let's discover some innovative and inventive superpowers to remedy this situation. In this workshop, we are going to stretch our super-skills in several directions with some hands-on practice. Bring a buddy or two and see how you too can spice up your speaking skills.

Saddle Up Your Dreams — Your SuperPower at Work — T K O'Geary

Whether you have an idea, a project, an objective, a dream, or a plan, there is a key ingredient necessary for success. In this talk, you'll learn about this key ingredient, a key ingredient that we can all possess and make one of our superpowers. You'll learn about what this key ingredient looks like, when to use this key ingredient, how to develop it further.

Soar with CliftonStrengths — Brandy Schade

Learn how to coach individuals based on their CliftonStrengths. We will review a participant's profile, break down his/her strengths into Leadership Domains, and show where his or her strengths excel within a work cycle. We will discuss various careers that this particular person might enjoy and how to coach him or her in a way that engages his or her mind.

Step onto the Stage – Using Drama Techniques to Enhance Your Speeches — Sara Meg Seese

In this interactive session, members will engage in exercises used by professional actors that hone their public speaking and presentation skills. Want to spice up your speeches? Learn to taste your words. Feel like your arms hang off your shoulders or flail wildly? Getting your gestures into shape leaves your whole speech trim and fit. Lastly, let the pacing tiger out of its cage and find your true comfort zones.

How the 'V3 Strategy' Can Help You Stop Overthinking and Start Doing — Dawn Shannon

Have you ever wanted to accomplish something so badly but year after year you are still spinning your wheels and seeing little results?

You know what you want but just can't seem to find the right strategy to make it happen. Friend, you may be caught in the 'Overthinkers Vortex' – too much thinking and not enough doing. If you are ready to Stop Overthinking and Start Doing, you are in the right place!

The 10 Habits of the Most Trusted People — Yoram Solomon, PhD

In The Book of Trust and his workshops and online courses, Dr. Solomon takes his followers through a 7-step process of developing new habits that make them more trusted. Over the years, he found that 10 of those habits have the biggest effect on trustworthiness, and that the most trusted people use all 10 of them. In this workshop, he explains those and provides a self-assessment worksheet to discover the strength of those habits in you.

